bring this in to the proper shape and the proper form, if the Senate will pass it over and we will discuss it another time.

PRESIDENT: Any objections to passing over the bill? Senator Carpenter, do you intend to withdraw this amendment and bring in a new one? If so, it will keep us from putting it in the Journal if that is all right with you.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Just hold the bill as it is and I will bring in something that's more desirable.

PRESIDENT: OK. Thank you. Any objections to bypassing 257. Hearing none. So ordered. We will move on to 193. Senator Syas' bill.

CLERK: LB 193. Mr. President, this bill was first considered on March 19th. It's a bill for enactment Section 48-123, and 121, 2, and 4 relating to Workmen's Compensation. Read. The bill was again considered on March 20th and laid over. There were no Committee amendments. There was a motion by Senator Kelly to indefinitely postpone the bill made on March 27th and that motion is still pending.

PRESIDENT: Is Senator Syas in the chamber? Does anybody know? And would the clerk correct the listing up on the Board, please. I believe you have 493. Shouldn't it be 193.

CLERK: Yes.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Stand by just a minute, will you, Senator Kelly. Senator Johnson, would you be willing to take up LB 180, at this time, until we can locate Senator Syas. Senator Syas' bill actually relates to Senator Clark's proposal 342 and those two are sort of scheduled for side-by-side debate or debate in tandem, how do you like that? Anyway, would you be willing to take up your 180?

SENATOR JOHNSON: I have no objection but there is an amendment on that and Senator Lewis is not here to handle that.

PRESIDENT: Which Lewis? Who isn't here?

SENATOR JOHNSON: Dick.

PRESIDENT: Senator Richard Lewis is not here for an amendment on 180.

CLERK: He was here earlier.

PRESIDENT: Well. OK. Senator Syas is here now. Maybe we can go ahead and debate this one. We are talking about 193. We have a motion to indefinitely postpone by Senator Kelly and that is what is under debate here at this time. We are going back to pick up the action here on General File, now, with 193.

SENATOR SYAS: Well, I appreciate your starting debate when I wasn't in the room, I might say here.

PRESIDENT: No, Senator Syas. No, you didn't listen to me. We haven't started the debate. That's the reason we waited for you and the reason we sent for you.

SENATOR SYAS: Oh.

PRESIDENT: Now.

SENATOR SYAS: Well, I don't think we can handle this bill in ten minutes.
